

SOPHIE OSBORNE BHSII CLINICS & LESSONS

01364 388188 / 07977 588 754

Dressage, jump lessons or schooling of your horse

Sophie is one half of the Husband and Wife team that have owned, re-developed and managed Cheston since 2007. Sophie's equine background is broad including affiliated dressage (Medium/Adv Medium) and BE 100 eventing, county level showing, team-chasing, hunting &, of course, Pony Club including regional eventing team.

Whilst dressage and showing is now her specialism, Sophie loves jumping and can train you in jumping. Clients have included the Royal Navy Marines Show Jumping Team, Plymouth College Jumping Team and Plymouth University Team as well as numerous private individuals, riding clubs and pony clubs. In Dressage, Sophie has had wins at BD Medium on her own completely home produced horse. The pair have competed at regional level and competed to advanced medium. Sophie has recently competed at Royal Cornwall, Devon County and still enjoys jumping in Working Hunter classes.

With a degree and a PGCE, Sophie has lectured in an equine college, has delivered CFEC apprenticeship training for Duchy College as well as training our staff to BHSAI level.

As an instructor who regularly rides, trains and competes, Sophie is always keeping up to date and always improving her skills so she can improve yours! Sophie has trained with Art Noordijk BHSI, Peter Cook BHSI, Andrew Lovell BHSI as well as Alice Peternell, Pammy Hutton FBHS, Robert Pickles FBHS, Peter Storr. Sophie holds the BHSII, and with 30 Centre horses, she knows a solution to pretty much every trick in the equine book.

Lessons will be fun, friendly yet serious about improving your riding and horse enjoyment. Training at Cheston can be indoors or outdoors and geared towards you and your needs. All levels welcome: nervous, novice, experienced and competitive riders. Sophie can also school your horse to find out what you feel.
